Trends

- ✓ The Prosecutor's Office implements strict criminal law policy against persons prosecuted under human trafficking articles;
- ✓ 100% of prosecutions for human trafficking are related to labor exploitation;
- ✓ In all cases of human trafficking, the trafficker is a family member of the victim (either the mother or the father).

Trends

- All individuals prosecuted under human trafficking provisions have no prior criminal record;
- 44% of those recognized as victims of human trafficking are minor girls, while 56% are minor boys;
- Based on a decree of a prosecutor, the witness and victim coordinator of the Prosecutor's Office is involved in a human trafficking case in a mandatory manner;
- In 2026, the coordinator was involved in all cases of human trafficking, where a decree was issued on recognizing a person as a victim;

Trends

- In 2026 no cases of human trafficking committed by taking the victim abroad from Georgia were recorded;
- In 2026, no cases of human trafficking of foreign nationals and third-country nationals in Georgia were recorded;

Challenges

- ✓ Detecting human trafficking crimes committed using information and communication technologies;
- ✓ Identifying child victims of online sexual exploitation;
- ✓ Detecting exploitation forms, other than labor exploitation;

Future Plans

- ✓ Continuous capacity building of prosecutors handling human trafficking crimes;
- ✓ Research and analysis of the trends and profiles of human trafficking victims and defendants on the basis of criminal cases;
- ✓ Improving the coordination of the Working Group on Detection and Prevention of Facts of Labor Trafficking.
